DAID-UP POLICIES -- Premiums may be fimited to 10, 15 or 20 years from the commencement, and after the Policy has been in force for three years, each year's payment of premium secures a proportionate part of the sum assured as a Paid-up

Policy in the event of the Life Assured wishing to coase payments. This Rule

The estimates of the attendance at the Hyde Park meeting vary, but it is certain that 150,000 to be engaged at a salary of £3,000 to £4,000 a persons, including onlookers, were present. The many are complete in the streets. Fift an hunprocession took an hour and one-half to file into the Park. The first contingent was compound of members of Robert Emmet Lodge; then followed a large number of Irish temperance ledges. Radical workman's clubs and Social Democratic societies. Numerous bands of music were in the line. While passing the Carlton and other Conservative clubs the bands placed the "Dead March in Saul "and the " Marseillaise." Green banners and Irish national emblems were conspicious in the ranks. Among the mottoes displayed on the banners were there: "Justice to Ireland": "Friendship, Not Bayonets"; "No The effect of the careful arrangements that had been made to avoid confusion at the Park was seen in the admirable order in which the paraders grouped themselves around the fourteen platforms. The greatest throng gathered at the platforms from which Lord Mayor Sullivan of Dublin, and 'oneybear and William

Redmond, member of Parliament, spoke. Lord Mayor Sullivan, in the course of a most affective speech, asked: "Is it the wish of the workingman of Loudon that the honest, hardworking tenantry of Ireland should be forever orushed down?" A tremendous response of "No" resonned throughout the Park. The letter has created a great sensation. Concluding his account Mr. Allen enters into lengthy criticism of the P. & O. Company and Union Insurance Society of Canton, Limitedts officers. He declares that the master of the steamer. Capt. Perrins, was physically unfit for the important duty with which he was entrusted. He further states that at the time of stranding the Lascars collapsed lamentably. Their terror was so great that they became absolutely useless. Mr. Allen states that after the casualty occurred, the stewards looted the cabins. He then severely criticises the unwise economy of the Company and urges that they should pay their officers more liberally, so that they might be able to retire earlier. The Gazette's correspondent adds .- The Company authorise me to contradict the allegatious made in this letter. Capt. Perrins, they say, was one of the most trusted, officers of
